Permit Granted For New Bulk Plant

The Pahokee City Council in a lengthy session Monday night held a public hearing, sat as a tax equalization board, then conducted routine business until past midnight when it adjourned until Monday night, Sept. 19, at which time a special meeting will be held to clean up unfinished business.

The public hearing related to the proposed change in the city's new zoning ordinance re-classifying the zoning of the property of the Orange State Oil Company at 39 East Main St. from C-1 Commercial to Industrial which will permit the company to carry through plans for $60,000 modernization program to improve its gasoline and oil bulk plant located on this property.

After hearing arguments pro and con the Council voted to make the necessary changes in the zoning ordinance to permit the company to modernize its bulk plant and approved the first reading of the first reading of the amended ordinance, the final reading and adoption to take place at the next regular meeting. Councilmen Robert E. Simonson and George H. Tucker, Jr., voted for the change and Mrs. Etancho Armstrong, against it. H. Wilkinson, Jr. vice president, presided in the absence of President Loren Meredith.

W. C. Waller, district manager of the Orange State Oil Company, explained his company's plan to modernize its present bulk plant which was built in the pioneer days with underground tanks of a capacity of 62,000 gallons. The modernization program calls for the removal of

Pahokee PTA Seeks Blue Ribbon Rating

The Pahokee Parent-Teacher Association at the first meeting of the school year held in the high school auditorium Monday night, with the new president, W. K. Aldridge, presiding, voted to strive again this year to meet the requirements of the PTA Blue Ribbon Association for a blue ribbon rating. Last year under the leadership of President Miriam Dulany the Pahokee PTA earned a blue ribbon rating for the first time in its history.

It was voted to hold the annual PTA Halloween Carnival on Halloween night Monday, Oct. 31, and the carnival committee was given full authority to plan accordingly.

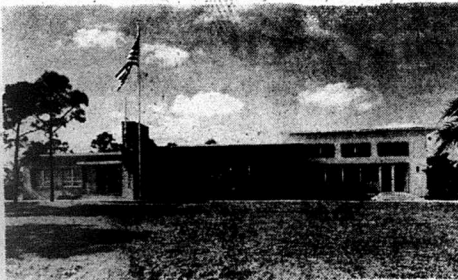

Mrs. Cletis Hand was nominated for the office of third vice president and hospitality chairman to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of Mrs. Beulah Boe, election to take place at the next meeting.

An expenditure of $10 was authorized to help pay the expenses of sending five local delegates to the PTA County Council study course at Boca Raton next summer.

It was announced Mrs. Owen Todd is in charge of local sales of calendars for the PTA County Council. It was also announced that milk drinks will be available for children of the elementary school during the recess periods at the school cafeteria at five cents a drink.

County Agricultural Building Is Named For County Agent M. U. Mounts

Above is shown the handsome new agricultural building recently erected by Palm Beach County on Military Trail in West Palm Beach. On Monday of this week it was named the "Marvin U. Mounts Building" in honor of the County Agent who has served Palm Beach County for 30 years.

Vice Chairman Paul Rardin Presents Citation To County Agent Mounts

At Tuesday's meeting of the West Palm Beach Rotary Club County Commission Vice Chairman Paul Rardin presented County Agent M. U. "Red" Mounts with a resolution adopted unanimously by the board on Monday which named the agricultural building on Military Trail in West Palm Beach the "Marvin U. Mounts Building." In making the presentation Commissioner Rardin pointed out that the veteran agent had spent the past 30 years serving the agricultural industry of this great county. Rardin, among other things, said: "Red has left no stone unturned in bringing the county to the forefront in agriculture in the United States."

Canal Point PTA Names Workers

Julian Branch, new president of the Canal Point Parent-Teacher Association, presided for the first time at the September meeting held in the school auditorium Monday night.

Named as a new chairman of standing committees were Mrs. Pope Sears, hospitality; Mrs. W. E. Johnson, membership; W. E. Johnson, program; Mrs. O. H. Shepard, health; Mrs. Julian Branch,

County Agent Mounts Honored By Board

County Agent M. U. Mounts, one of the county's oldest employees, was honored this week by the county commission in a resolution which names the county's new agricultural building on Military Trail for the veteran agent.

The commission designated the official name of the agricultural headquarters as Mounts Building in recognition of the agents 30 years service with Palm Beach County.

Mounts came to Palm Beach County in 1925 as an assistant county agent and was appointed county agent in 1929.

New Appraisal Is Plan For Pahokee

The Pahokee City Council Monday night authorized Mayor Lewis Friend and City Clerk Dorothy Graham with the assistance of City Attorney Ralph Johnson to draw up a contract with Hunnicutt and Hunnicutt Associates of St. Petersburg for a new and up-to-date appraisal of all real estate and personal property within the city limits of Pahokee. For this service, the city will pay $7,500 at the rate of $2,500 a year over a three year period.

City Attorney Johnson reported letters have been sent to property owners delinquent in their payments on Sidewalk Project No. 1, stating that if these payments are not made by Sept. 15 the city will start foreclosure proceedings on their property to collect the amounts due.

An ordinance releasing the city's rights on an easement of eight feet reserved for public utilities in the Washington Park subdivision was given a final reading and adopted.

Police Chief Leon Guthrie was asked to take action against property owners who allow shrubs and

Zack Ingram And Livingston Win

Zack Ingram and J. H. Livingston, Jr., were elected to Belle Glade City Council Tuesday. Marvin Unwin will go into a run-off with K. E. Lutz for the third seat. Ingram polled 579 of 910 votes cast to win a clear-out majority against two opponents in Centralboro. J. E. Caldwell drew 170 votes and N. B. Willis, 117.

In the two-man Westboro race, J. H. Livingston, Jr., beat incumbent Herman L. Close, 456-400. J. Marvin Unwin, with 364 votes in Northboro, was forced into a run-off against Kenneth E. Lutz, with 262. Incumbent H. O. Carlton polled 251.

Homer J. Clause of Lake Kerr was a business visitor here this week, returning home Wednesday.

Can the 1955 edition of the Pahokee High Blue Devils overcome the low starting habit that has cost Blue Devil teams loss of opening games for the past several years? This is the question on the lips of Glades football fans as the Clewiston High Tigers invade Lair Field here tonight (Friday) determined to continue their jinx against the Devils in the opening game for both Suncoast Conference teams. Even last year Coach Webb Pell's eleven, the strongest in the school's history, dropped the opener, 7-18, to Clewiston before making a clean sweep of the remaining nine games to take the conference crown.

Since both teams lost most of their ace players through graduation last spring they are unknown quantities in this year's conference race. They are evenly matched in weight and both are short, as all small schools are, on reserves to back up the first team.

Coach Webb Pell, who for the past two years has been very successful in directing the Blue Devils' offensive plays of the Spitt-T, reports his men in only fair condition with a few key players banged up in scrimmage the past week. On the injured list are Harry Sheppard, first string center, who may not be able to play at all Friday night, depending on what the x-ray pictures reveal, and Fred Blakey, substitute fullback.

Pell and his assistant, Line Coach Bill Howard, have been trying

Here Is What Transpired At Monday's Meeting Of The Palm Beach County Commission

A new legislative act which sets up a reorganization of the State Road Department has been criticized by County Attorney Harry Johnston as "carelessly and loosely drawn."

Johnston told the county commission this week that portions of the new measure "are obviously in error" and advised the commission to step around some provisions of the code in considering sub division plats.

Johnston was referring to a section of the act which provides for 66 foot right of ways for all sub-division roads—making no exception for such thoroughfares as alleys.

The attorney advised the commission to follow a pattern which has been set for the Dade County Commission, that being to approve sub divisions with less than 66 foot right of way except where the right of way is needed for roads on the county's grid plan or the state road system. The 66 foot right of way, Johnston said, should be considered the minimum and not change present county regulations which call for 80 foot right of ways for all major roads.

The new act, Johnston said, was drafted and adopted without the details being brought to the attention of county officials.

"Consequently," he said "they came in with a lot of stuff we knew nothing about and we're stuck with it for two years."

Meantime the commission instructed Johnston to bring the new act to the attention of county officials at their state convention in Sarasota next month in the hope that some of the "questionable sections can be crystallized."

State and county officials this week are studying two bids—both which exceed estimates—for construction of a new health center at Pahokee.

The two bids—one from Roemer Construction Company of Belle Glade for $26,400 and the other from Don Hillier and Sons, Pahokee for $25,725, were opened Monday by the county commission. Original cost estimates for the new center had been set at $20,000.

Here to review the bids with the commission was Donald R. Crim, representative of the hospital planning division of the Florida State Improvement Commission.

The two bids were referred to the county attorney and the county engineer for submission to state and federal agencies which are contributing funds to help defray costs of the new building.

Meantime, County Commissioner Paul Rardin, Canal Point, was given authority by the commission, to proceed with clearing the site for the new health center near the Everglades Memorial Hospital at Pahokee.

In another action this week, the commission, also on motion by Commissioner Rardin, approved the appointment of Mrs. Hilda Jensen, as a nurse in the county health department. The new nurse will work in the Glades area.

The commission this week also:

Made plans to confer with a landscape architect for a final draft of plans for the development of John Prince Memorial Park at Lake Worth.

Named a committee of Commissioners Kenneth Foster, Roy Michael and Lake Lytal, to study the possibility of establishing a new bulkhead line along the intercoastal waterway in cooperation with municipalities along the coast.

The commission this week also:

Made plans to confer with a landscape architect for a final draft of plans for the development of John Prince Memorial Park at Lake Worth.

Named a committee of Commissioners Kenneth Foster, Roy Michael and Lake Lytal, to study the possibility of establishing a new bulkhead line along the intercoastal waterway in cooperation with municipalities along the coast.

Voted to call for bids for completion of the west wing of the county jail.

Approved the bid of Aero Service Corp. of Philadelphia for mapping a section of the county along the coast. The aerial photo maps will be used by the county's new zoning department.

Adopted a resolution calling for changing the name of Selby Road to Forest Hills Blvd. outside the limits of West Palm Beach. Commissioner Lytal said most of the residents along the road were in favor of the change.

C. P. Garden Group To Meet On Sept. 29

The Canal Point Garden Club will meet Tuesday, September 29 at 2:00 p. m. at the home of Mrs. E. W. Brandes. There will be a demonstration by an experienced landscape gardener in the new garden club stat house on the property of Palm Beach Research Farm. All members are urged to attend wearing work clothes in order to make work plans for coming year.

Benjamin Franklin, whose birthday is January 17, was expert in handling money and his advice is as found today as 200 years ago. All quotations here are from his booklet, "The Way To Wealth," published 1760.

Ben Franklin gives you some expert advice about Payroll Savings

"What though you have found no Treasure, nor has any rich Relation left you a legacy, Diligence is the Mother of Good Luck."

Have you ever wished you had $1,000, $5,000 or more—to buy a car, get a home, help you toward retirement? Today, it is actually easy to save such large sums! Because, today, you can have your saving done for you—with automatic diligence—through the Payroll Savings Plan.

"If you would have a faithful Servant, and one that you like, serve yourself."

Serving yourself means keeping some of the money you make each week and investing it, for yourself. Here's how: you just name a sum to your company's pay office—a few dollars or as much as you want. Each payday, that sum will be saved from your pay, before you get your check and invested for you in one of the world's finest investments, U. S. Series E Savings Bonds!

"Little Strokes fell great Oaks."

Because Savings Bonds earn good interest, they're soon worth more than the money you've invested in them. And how your savings mount up! Sign for as little as $5.00 a week and in 9 years, 8 months, you'll have $2,850 cash. In 19 years, 8 months, you'll have $6,872!

"One To-day is worth two To-morrows, and farther. Have you somewhat to do To-morrow, do it To-day."

For your own sake, don't put off joining the 8 million Americans who are making their dreams come true through Payroll Savings. Sign up for Payroll Savings today. Or, if you're self-employed, invest in Savings Bonds regularly where you bank. If you want your interest as current income, ask your banker about 3% Series H Bonds which pay interest semiannually by Treasury check.

"Remember what Poor Richard says:

Miss Johnnie Lowery Weds Alfred Meeks

Miss Johnnie Will Lowery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Lowery of Pelican Lake, and Alfred William Meeks, son of J. D. Meeks of Pahokee, exchanged marriage vows in an impressive double ring ceremony held at the Canal Point Baptist Church Friday, Sept. 9, at 7:30 p. m., with the Rev. Joe C. Clements, pastor, officiating. The altar, lighted with white tapers in branched candelabra, was decorated with palms and white gladioli and the pews were marked by heart-shaped bows of white satin.

Miss Dorothy Chastain, pianist, played the traditional wedding march. Miss Carolyn Frost of Dania was accompanist for Miss Joan Black of Dania, vocalist, who sang "I Love You Truly," "Through the Years" and "A Wedding Prayer."

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory satin designed with fitted bodice and long skirt ending in a chapel-length train. Her elbow-length veil of French illusion flowed from a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a white Bible with white satin streamers on top of which was a white orchid.

Miss Joyce Dill of Washington, Ga., a roommate of the bride while both attended Mercer University, Macon, Ga., last year, was maid of honor. She wore a blue antique taffeta gown with long bodice, scooped neckline and floor-length skirt. Her headpiece was a matching bandeau of the same material as the dress.

The Misses Carley and Gwen Iracovsco, nieces of the bride, bridesmaids were gowns of pink antique taffeta of design identical to that of the maid of honor. They also wore small bands as headpieces and around their necks were double strands of pearls. All of the bride's attendants carried heart-shaped bouquets of tuberose and sweet-heart roses with white satin streamers.

Dick Atkins, University of Florida student, served as Mr. Meeks' best man. Millard Stanley and Charles McCurdy were ushers.

The bride's parents were hosts at the reception in the Pahokee Woman's Club building following the ceremony. Mrs. Harry Hughes, sister of the bride, was in charge of the bride's book. Mrs. Walter Cross served portions of the wedding cake while Miss Dorothy Chastain and Mrs. Juanita Bracewell, sister of the bride, presided at the punchbowl. Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Lowery and son, Charles, and Miss Hazel Bowen, all of Macon.

On their honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Meeks spent a few days at Juno Beach before going to Tallahassee where both are enrolling for the fall semester at Florida State University. Mr. Meeks will be a Senior at FSU this year and Mrs. Meeks, a Sophomore. He is a graduate of Pahokee High School and she was graduated from Belle Glade High School.

Prior to the wedding Mrs. Charles Maxson and Mrs. Julian Branch entertained at Mrs. Maxson's home Thursday night with a supper for the bridal party following the rehearsal for the ceremony at the church.

The bride-elect was also complimented at a recent bride's party and shower in the Woman's Club building. Hostesses were Mrs. Walter Cross, Mrs. Mildred Brandon, Mrs. Edith Smith, Mrs. L. P. Turbeville, Mrs. Maxine Maxson, Mrs. Judy Sapp and Mrs. Martha Holt. They were assisted by Mrs. Betty Lane Maxson and Mrs. Helen Reeves who served at the punch bowl.

Bandmaster and Mrs. Robert O. Lampi spent the weekend in Tampa where they were guests of Mrs. Lampi's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Williamson. Mr. Lampi, who is secretary-treasurer of the Florida Bandmasters Association, attended a FEA executive board meeting held there on Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Guerry of Belle Glade announce the birth of a son, William Joe, at the Everglades Memorial Hospital Sept. 8.

Cinematic Chatter

By Malcolm Miller

Hello everybody! Show business is still the magnet that draws young and old to its folds. There is a certain fascination about this adventure packed profession that claims the attention of millions. People believe this to be a life of travel, glamour, high living, and sport. They think that show people have nothing to do but romp through romantic, dramatic or musical shows, portraying the kind of roles that suit their fancy. I have news for you! This is far from fact. Show business is one of the most exacting professions known to man. It demands of its people long hours of hard, nerve shattering rehearsals that takes everything out of a person and leaves one more exhausted than hours of hard labor. It demands that you come up to the initial performance before footlights or camera lights to render a perfect performance, not once, but every time! It demands that you travel at the time show business wishes, and not on time to suit your comfort. You also travel by every uncomfortable means known to man and bivouac in some of the most undesirable places imaginable. Many give years of their life before they reach any degree of success. . . . Some never reach it. If you hit the right people at the right time and under favorable conditions you may attain your goal early and move up to financial success and public acclaim. . . . Otherwise show business is a heart breaking profession. . . . See you at the movies—Mal.

Local Lions Hear Marine Recruiters

M-Sgt. Steve Seabolt and S-Sgt. Arthur Ellis, from the U. S. Marine Corps recruiting office in West Palm Beach, and Petty Officers 1st Henry Lavartu, from the U. S. Navy's recruiting office in the same city, were guest speakers at the dinner meeting of the Canal Point Lions Club.

Sgt. Seabolt enumerated some of the advantages to be gained by young men who join a reserve unit of the Armed Forces. PO Lavartu told of the need of more ministers in the Armed Forces to serve as chaplains and showed a film entitled "Chapels in the South Pacific" which emphasized the importance of religion in the lives of service men. The guest speakers were introduced by Arnold Barad. The Rev. B. William Palmer was in charge of the program.

The club made plans for a ladies night program at the Sept. 19th meeting when members of the Canal Point School faculty and wives of club members will be dinner guests.

Good Lighting Not Hit Or Miss Job—It Must Be Planned; Guide Is Given

BY IRA MILLER
Farm Electrification Bureau

Good lighting is not a hit or miss job. It must be planned. And this goes for the farm, particularly, where scores of after-dark accidents happen regularly because of poor illumination.

A dark farmyard can be a pretty formidable place in which to take a walk. It becomes even more dangerous when the farmer is hurrying to wind up his chores following a long tiring day. All of us work better, faster and safer if we can see what we're doing, and where we're going. A combination of conventional yardlights and floodlights for locations over entrances to service buildings, and a cluster of floodlights on a yard pole to illuminate areas beyond buildings will do an adequate exterior illumination job. As a guide to how this can be accomplished we refer to the illustration below, which suggests:

Floodlights on side, near top of silo (1); cluster of three floodlights mounted on pole for three-directional general yard lighting (3);

Conventional yard lights over entrance to dairy barn (2), and over entrance to poultry house (5) — in foreground;

Floodlights or conventional yard-light fixtures, whichever is more efficient for individual farm layouts, at entrance to hog house (4); at the three other No. 5 locations shown—poultry house, utility building and garage—as well as entrances to such buildings as machine shed, farm shop, milk house, drive-through granary and storage structures.

The foregoing represent general recommendations only—but they are tied directly to nation-wide safety statistics that prove conclusively that injuries can be prevented and work speeded up if farmers will follow the simple practice of putting plenty of light on the job—and lighting their paths to the job.

$25 Charge Is Set For Placing Culverts

The county commission this week put a $25 price tag on labor for covering culverts for residents on county and state highways.

In the past, residents living on county roads who wished culverts installed, purchased the culverts and county crews installed the pipe at no extra cost. Residents on state roads, in accordance with state road department regulations, had to purchase their own culverts and pay costs of fill.

The commission said this week that requests for installation of culverts were becoming so numerous that costs were getting out of hand.

In the future, residents will still purchase their own culverts and for an added $25, can have the pipes installed by the county crew—either on county or state roads.

Reading Habits Will Be Studied

A long-range educational project to study the reading habits of the children of Canal Point, Principal Crawford said. This week, according to Principal Carl Crawford, Approximately 120 children, from the second through the sixth grades, are taking a battery of diagnostic tests to determine, first, the reading level of each child at the present time and, second, the child's potential reading level, that is, the level at which the child should be reading. The tests also determine the child's IQ rating and the mental age as compared to the chronological age.

The purpose of the tests is to improve the reading habits of the children of Canal Point, Principal Crawford said. Every year the battery of tests will be given at the start of the school and again later in the school year to determine what progress the children have made in their reading habits. The rate of improvement of each child's reading habits will not only be checked for each school year but also from year to year as the child advances in the elementary grades. Remedial reading methods will be taught in cases where it is found necessary.

The better reading project is being carried under the supervision of Principal Crawford and members of the school's teaching staff.

Jamboree Draws Interested Fans

Football fans of the Lake Okechobee area were given a preseason view of four of the top high school teams in the area at the Lions Football Jamboree Clinic held on Lair Field, Pahokee, Friday night under the joint sponsorship of the Lions Clubs of Pahokee, Belle Glade, Clewiston, South Bay, Canal Point, Okechobee and Moore Haven. The four teams participating were Coach Webb Pell's Pahokee Blue Devils, Coach Carl Ferrara's Clewiston Tigers, Coach Calvin Peacock's Belle Glade Golden Rams and Coach Jim Young's Okechobee Brahmas.

Individual and group contests among the four teams made this year's clinic more interesting than ever to the spectators. The 50-yard shuttle race by linemen, eight men to the team, was won by Pahokee; the 50-yard shuttle race by backs, four men to the team, by Clewiston. In the individual contest George Coleman of Clewiston won the punting contest with a 43½-yard kick. Wayne Bair of Belle Glade placed first in the pass for distance with a 54-yard toss and Pat Turbeville of Pahokee and Leon Burkett of Belle Glade tied for first place in the 50-yard dash.

The Tigers demonstrated offensive formations; the Rams, defensive formations; the Brahmas, trick plays, and the Blue Devils, punt and kickoff returns. The Blue Devils also demonstrated violations of rules as they were explained by Brooks Henderson, one of the football officials of the Glades area. Other officials taking part in the clinic were Horace Unwin, Dow Fitzgerald and Frank Gillis of Pahokee and Eddie Crosby of Belle Glade.

The clinic was opened with a brief address of welcome by Manning I. Keen, general chairman, in charge of arrangements. The teams and their coaches were introduced by James W. Vann, master of ceremonies. The presentation of colors were made by a color guard from Pahokee American Legion Post 90. The Pahokee High School Band under the direction of Robert O. Lampi played Sousa's "Stars and Stripes Forever" during the presentation of the colors, then the National Anthem.

Liquor Ban Is Plan Near Labor Camp

Possibility of zoning an area around the Okechobee Labor Project against the sale of intoxicating liquor is being studied by the county commission following a request from the Belle Glade Housing Authority to rezone the area.

In a letter to the county commission, Emmett Roberts a member of the Authority, asked that the area be rezoned — particularly a section near the camps vocational school. Roberts said one license in the area is now under suspension and may not be renewed. He told the commission that the Authority favors no liquor licenses in the area.

The commission instructed County Attorney Harry Johnston to confer with the Authority members on areas to be zoned and to report back to the commission next week.

Hospital Project By The Garden Club

The Pahokee-Canal Point Garden Club's beautification project for the Everglades Memorial Hospital grounds was started this past summer under the direction of Mrs. F. M. Shaughnessy and Mrs. Lloyds M. Hundley, according to the report given at the first meeting of the season of the club's executive board at the home of the president, Mrs. Hundley, Tuesday, afternoon.

The board accepted two recommendations made by the president: first, that club circles confine their activities strictly to garden club business at all circle meetings; and second, that each circle make plans to conduct some kind of workshop during the year. The year's program for the club as outlined by the president was also accepted by the board.

Mrs. Frank Friend, roadside development chairman, was asked by the president to work with the City of Pahokee in the development of the roadside park on the Okechobee Plantations property where Larimore Road joins East Main St.

The names of 11 applicants for membership in the club were presented by the circles to the board for consideration.

Mrs. L. W. Armstrong and Mrs. Hundley were named delegates and Mrs. O. D. Carpenter and Mrs. Frank Friend, alternates, to represent the club at the district meeting to be held at the Sailfish Club West Palm Beach, Oct. 21.

It was announced the first general meeting of the club will be held in the Community Hall at Canal Point Thursday, Sept. 22, at 7:30 p. m., with Nixon Smiley of Miami, newspaper garden editor, scheduled to be present as guest speaker.

Small Amount Cash From Grid Jamboree

The Lions Football Jamboree Clinic held on Lair Field, Pahokee, the night of Sept. 9 under the joint sponsorship of seven Lions Clubs of the Lake Okechobee area netted $343.11, the largest proceeds ever received from a football clinic in the Glades area, according to Manning I. Keen of Pahokee, general chairman. This money will be used to defray expenses on the annual Lions potseason football banquet to be given next winter for all the high school football squads of the area, Keen said.

Serving on the committee in charge of general arrangements for the clinic with Mr. Keen were R. E. Hotart of Belle Glade, Osceola Upthegrove of Canal Point, Meade Willis of South Bay and Jim Young of Okechobee.

Former Under Secretary of the Navy Francis Whitehair is developing a cattle ranch near Deland where he is raising Polled Short-horns.

4-H Club boys are now selecting feeder steers to be displayed at the Fat Stock Show in connection with the 1956 Florida State Fair in Tampa.

Rev. Boyd, Dr. Long New Pahokee Lions

The Rev. James E. Boyd, new pastor of the Pahokee First Baptist Church and Dr. R. R. Long, Pahokee dentist who recently returned to his home here after serving as a reserve officer in the U. S. Army, were welcomed as members of the Pahokee Lions Club at the Tuesday luncheon meeting. The Rev. Boyd was received as a transfer member from the Lions Club at Tallapoosa, Ga., and Dr. Long, a former member of the Pahokee Club, was reinstated.

It was reported the Lions football jamboree and clinic held on Lair Field, Pahokee, the night of Sept. 9 under the joint sponsorship of the seven Lions Clubs of the Lake Okechobee area was the most successful football clinic held in this area to date.

It was announced a Lions zone meeting will be held in the Community Hall at Canal Point Sunday, Sept. 18, at 3 p. m., with Osceola Upthegrove of Canal Point, zone chairman, to preside.

On the program the Rev. Boyd, who toured the Holy Land last summer, told of some of his experiences while visiting the Holy Land and illustrated his talk with colored slides. Paul Tilley was in charge of the program and President Clyde Canipe presided.

Central Truck Lines has applied to the State Railroad and Public Utilities Commission for permission to greatly expand its freight service throughout the state.

The Florida Fruit and Vegetable Association will hold its 12th annual convention at the Hotel Fontainebleau in Miami Beach, Oct. 4-6.

State Officer Group To Hear P. B. Officials

Palm Beach County's official family will be well represented on the State Association of County Officials convention program next month.

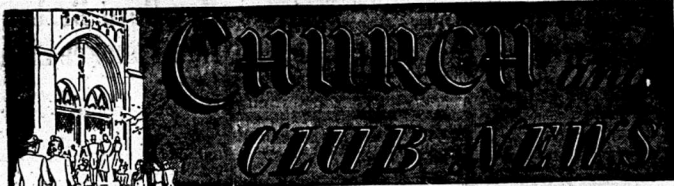

The association is meeting in Sarasota Oct. 5, 6, and 7 and will hear reports from County Commissioner Kenneth Foster, chairman of the group's mosquito control committee; County Engineer Steve Middleton, temporary chairman of a new state-wide county engineer and road superintendents association; County Commissioner Lake Lytal who will moderate a panel discussion and County Commissioner Paul Rardin, who will report on the last convention of the National Association of County Officials—a meeting that was held in Richmond, Va., during the summer.

Zoyzia grass is replacing other types throughout Florida because it resists insects and disease and forms a thick blanket of beautiful carpet-like lawn.

Picnic Tables Placed By Pahokee FFA

Four picnic tables with bench-type seats have been placed in the evergreen grove on the lake side of the Lake Okeechobee levee west of the Pahokee city hall.
 The tables were placed in the grove for the enjoyment and convenience of picknickers through the cooperation of the Pahokee Chapter, Future Farmers of America, and the Pahokee chapters of the Beta Sigma Phi Sorority. The FFA boys under the supervision of their chapter advisor, Loren O'Neal, made the tables and benches from materials furnished by the sorority.
 On Saturday evening members of the sorority and guests tried out the new tables after meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Wilkinson and going to the grove as a group.

Christian Science Group Of Canal Point

The fact that understanding the allness of God, Spirit, frees man from the idolatry of materialism will be set forth at Christian Science services this Sunday.
 Keynoting the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Matter" is the Golden Text from I. Corinthians (10:14): "My dearly beloved, flee from idolatry."
 From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy the following passage will be read (475:3): "To infinite Spirit there is no matter,—all is Spirit, divine Principle and its idea."
 Scriptural selections will include the following from Isaiah (42:5, 8) "Thus saith God the Lord, he that created the heavens, and stretched them out; he that spread forth the earth, and that which cometh out of it; he that giveth breath unto the people upon it, and spirit to them that walk therein. . . . I am the Lord: that is my name; and my glory will I not give to another, neither my praise to graven images."

Record Custodians Named For Church

Jack Spencer, chairman of the official board of the Pahokee First Methodist Church, at a board meeting Thursday night named O. B. McClure and John D. Rogers co-custodians of the church records. I. M. Lair and Loren O'Neal were appointed on a special committee to secure a janitor for the church.
 J. V. Thomas, lay leader, reported eight men of the church have already made reservations to attend the Methodist Laymen's Retreat at the Leesburg Camp Oct. 23-26.
 The Rev. A. D. Houghlin, pastor, announced Dr. Clara Cottor, West Palm Beach District superintendent, will be the guest speaker at a series of special evening services at the church Oct. 23-30. A Glades sub-district stewardship meeting at Belle Glade Thursday night, Sept. 15, was also announced.

Miss Carol Carpenter, who attended Wesleyan College, Macon, Ga., last year, has enrolled for the fall semester at Florida State University, Tallahassee.

Make your dream house come true! It's easy
—through Payroll Savings!

If you think you can't own the home of your dreams because the down payment's too steep, chances are you've never tried the Payroll Savings Plan. Because this is the easy, automatic way to meet any down payment—for a house or any large purchase.

Just do this: Sign a Payroll Savings application at your pay office, naming a certain sum to be kept aside from your pay before you get it each week—a few dollars or as much as you want. After that, you're saving automatically—nothing to worry about, nothing to do. And, best of all, the money saved out of your pay each week is automatically invested for you in U. S. Series E Savings Bonds.

Because Savings Bonds earn solid interest—3% cumulative semiannually when held to maturity —the few dollars saved from your pay each week soon grow into big generous amounts. For instance, if you sign for $12.50 a week, in just five years you'll have $3,348.95 cash. In 9 years, 8 months, you'll have $7,217.20!

So don't let down payments get you down. Meet your needs for ready cash the way more than 8 million other Americans are meeting theirs—join the Payroll Savings Plan today. Or, if you're self-employed, invest in Bonds regularly where you bank. Start now to make your dreams come true!

ing to set up some sort of workable defense against the Tigers in the practice this week but weren't able to concentrate on any special system. At the Lions Football clinic on Lair Field last Friday night Coach Carl Ferrara's Tigers in demonstrating various offensive systems of attack ran plays from so many formations from the Split-T to the single wing with such smoothness and skill that the Pahokee Coaches are wondering what system or systems of attack they will use in the opener.

Quarterback Robert Davis and Halfback Harold White, veterans from last year's team, are expected to spark the Tigers attack, while Halfbacks Pat Turbeville and Richard Weeks, Pahokee's lettermen in the backfield, will probably do most of the ball toting for the Blue Devils. Anchor men on the lines will be Guards John Blackwell and Jay Miner for Clewiston and Tackles Ronnie Hitchcock and Ronnie Berry for Pahokee.

With the Belle Glade Golden Rams idle this Friday a capacity crowd is expected on Lair Field to see the inter-Glades struggle between the two Suncoast Conference rivals tonight, game time 8:15. New bleachers added to the visitors section have increased the seating capacity at the field to 2,000. On the halftime program of entertainment the marching Pahokee High School Band will play for the first time in public. Pahokee High School's Alma Mater adopted by the student body last spring. Upon a request by Robert Mobley, who recently purchased the old Amoco building in the colored section, Councilman George Tucker, Jr., and Blanche Armstrong were named on a committee to investigate the building to determine whether it is in good enough condition to permit repair and remodeling.

Waterworks Superintendent Robert J. Schroder and his assistant, Marvin Levins, were granted permission to attend a short course for waterworks officials to be held at the University of Miami starting Tuesday, Sept. 20 and continuing on each Tuesday thereafter for four weeks.

Councilman Robert B. Simonson was appointed to have an inventory taken of city-owned equipment used in the summer recreational programs at the city park.

City Clerk Dorothy Graham announced new dog license tags are again due and now on sale at the city hall. It was also announced that city police are not authorized to remove abandoned automobiles resting on private property.

SORORITY MEETING

The Exempla Chapter of the Beta Sigma Phi Sorority held its first meeting of the fall season Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Kathryn Cunningham, 378 Bacom Point Rd. Mrs. Catherine Kennedy, program chairman, introduced Mrs. Meg Graham who spoke on "Public Speaking." Mrs. Frances Knight, president, presided.

the old tanks which are to be replaced by overhead tanks of 40,000-gallon total capacity surrounded by fire walls and located at the rear of the property near the foot of the lake levee. The old buildings will be razed to make way for a modern bulk plant building and filling station. The old building adjoining on the southeast was recently purchased from R. W. Sanders in order that it too can be razed and more space be added to the grounds which will be landscaped.

Waller pointed out his company's program will improve the appearance of the property, reduce what threat the bulk plant may have as a potential fire hazard, will not cause unpleasant fumes and will not increase insurance rates on nearby buildings.

Kenneth Kimball, a member of the City Commission of the City of Stuart, was present at the meeting to tell the Council that Stuart was also confronted with about the same situation in which the Orange State Oil Company asked for a permit to modernize its bulk plant located in the business section of Stuart. This permit was granted after a public hearing and the results have been very satisfactory, Kimball said.

Mrs. Blanche Armstrong, member of the Council, was asked to read several letters from officials of South Florida communities and from Frederick H. Bair, Jr., zoning consultant who prepared the city's new zoning ordinance. The advice in all of these letters, which had been written in answer to Mrs. Armstrong's personal inquiry, was against permitting the company to modernize its plant.

The Councilmen voting for the ordinance change made it very clear that should some company propose to move in and build an entirely new bulk plant in the business section of the city they would be unalterably opposed to such a proposal, but in voting to permit the improvement of the old plant they felt they were taking the right action under existing circumstances.

The group voted to purchase 50 feet of floor covering for the floors of the school's lunch room which were refinished during the summer. It was also voted to notify parents of school children of PTA meetings by mail through the new school year. Principal Carl Crawford announced the Canal Point School now has a Class A rating.

Mrs. Wilma Crawford's third grade room won the attendance award for September. It was announced the Upthegrove Quartet will be featured on the program at the October meeting.

The meeting was followed by a reception for the teachers. W. E. Johnson introduced Principal Crawford who introduced the teachers: Mrs. Alma Burr, Mrs. Helen Henderson, Mrs. Wilma Crawford, Mrs. Billie Huddle, Mrs. Gladys Harrington, Kyle Scott, George Wilkerson and Mrs. Shirley Kubeck. Mrs. Oliver Hatfield, school lunch room manager, and Fred Spires, school janitor, were also recognized and presented with potted plants as gifts of appreciation for their services.

Serving on the hostess committee at the reception were Mrs. James Phipps, Mrs. Eugene Holton, Mrs. O. H. Sheppard, Mrs. R. T. Smith and Mrs. Julian Branch.

Reserved Seats For Blue Devil Games

Season tickets for reserved seats to the five home games to be played by the Pahokee High Blue Devils on Lair Field were placed on sale at $7.50 each on Friday.

Season ticket sales are under the direction of James W. Vann who has a chart of the reserved seats section of Lair Field in his office and can give immediate information as to what seats are still available to all who call for reservations at his office, telephone 2471. He is being assisted with the sales by Leonard Dobrow, Curtis Chase and Lewis Friend.
